LOAN MONEY PAID DOWN

The money for the Territorial improvement bonds has been paid by the successful bidders to the agent of the Territory in New York, and there is pending with the Government here the important question as to how the money is to be transferred to the treasury. Early yesterday Treasurer Kepoikal received the following cablegram:

"Delivered to and paid for by Fisk & Robinson, $1,007,283.53. Where shall we deposit proceeds? Send written order."

"In consideration of our assistance in sale can you deposit with the United States Mortgage & Trust Company until funds are required for improvements? Interest will be allowed at 3 per cent."

The amount stated includes the accrued interest on the bonds from October 1. Treasurer Kepoikal consulted other heads on the proposition, which is obviously a good one for the Territory. Besides a saving of transmission charges, for the whole loan amounting to $2500, the three per cent on such portion of the sum as the Government cannot immediately expend would make a considerable increment.

Auditor Fisher suggested that local bankers would bring the money home as it might be required, not only without charge to the Territory but paying a premium on the exchange. Drafts against sugar are not unlimited in supply, hence more or less exchange has to be bought and gold imported against it.

Treasurer Kepoikal was in no doubt of the advantages offered in the proposition of the United States Mortgage & Trust Company. Yet he held serious misgivings as to any authority in the law for such a temporary disposition of the loan money. With the restrictions of the Audit Act and the absence of any enabling of him thereto in the loan and appropriation acts he did not see that it could be done.

Before taking definite action the Treasurer desires to have a conference with Governor Carter and the bankers about the matter. Meantime, to show his appreciation of the proposition, yesterday afternoon Mr. Kepoikal sent the following cablegram to the United States Mortgage & Trust Co., New York City:

"Congratulations to you on consummation. Considering law on your favorable proposition."

FOR WEAK NERVES.

"The battle of life to-day is not fought with the muscles but with the nervous system," so says Sir J. Crichton Browne, a high medical authority. Another authority, the late Dr. J. M. Fothergill, adds, "The more the digestion weakens and the liver and kidneys become inactive and sluggish, the more the blood becomes laden with waste matters, causing many disorders; among them gout, rheumatism, heart trouble, asthma and prostration of the nerves. A strong set of nerves, a set to work with, a set to enable you to stand the world's battles and collisions without breaking down, must be a well-nourished set of nerves; and well-fed nerves have got to be part and parcel of a strong, well-fed body. That is the idea; and how then are weak people going to obtain the strength and the assimilating power which lies behind it? By using WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION a remedy known all over the world as the most genuine and quick acting of food-tonics and blood purifiers. You will search far for a case of debility—no matter what the ultimate cause—which this modern and scientific medicine cannot at once relieve and cure. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Dr. Edward Clark says: "From a long experience in the use of cod liver oil, I have no hesitancy in saying that I regard your preparation the best one on the market." It cannot fail, and is beneficial from the first dose. Guaranteed to increase weight and renew strength. If hard to please, try it. Genuine is sold by all chemists here and everywhere throughout the world.

An Episode in Estee's Career.

Judge Estee's funeral was attended by a delegation of members of the Young Men's Institute, a circumstance that recalled an incident of the campaign in which he was a candidate for Governor, the second time. Scarcely had the campaign opened when Estee was waited upon by several of the leaders of the A. P. A. movement. They called his attention to the fact that a Miss Ryan who was employed as a typist in his office, and who has long since been admitted to the bar, was a Catholic, and they said that unless she were discharged their organization would be against him. He promptly suggested that they should go to a place warmer than Phoenix. The A. P. A.'s were against Estee in that campaign and he was defeated by a narrow margin. Miss Ryan subsequently accompanied her employer to Honolulu and she was among the mourners at the funeral.—Town Talk.

STACKABLE HOME AGAIN

Says Revenue Boat May Be Expected Soon.

By the middle of next month the United States Revenue cutter Hugh McCulloch may arrive here to be permanently attached to the Customs Department of the Hawaiian Islands. Collector of the Port E. R. Stackable returned yesterday on the Korea after a long absence on the mainland, in which time he conferred with the Treasury Department at Washington with reference to matters pertaining to Hawaii, and particularly about the cutter.

"I was assured that a revenue cutter would be here by the time I arrived," said Mr. Stackable yesterday. "However, I look forward to such a vessel being here by the middle of December, at least. My choice is the cutter Hugh McCulloch as she is built more for a warm climate. There is an upper deck on the McCulloch which would make it a very desirable vessel here. If the McCulloch is not to come, the Manning will probably be sent."

"No, I do not think there will be an increase in the force in any department under present circumstances."

Mr. Stackable thoroughly threshed out the proposition regarding the examination of baggage at this port, of through passengers from the Orient and Colonies for San Francisco. This has been abandoned entirely, and such inspections will now be made at the coast. The order, it will be remembered, was not popular.

In future Collector Stackable will render every assistance possible to passengers from foreign ports landing here. In order that each one will be given an opportunity to make a declaration of effects and wares in their possession, a Customs officer will be detailed to meet every foreign steamer, whose duty shall be to give information regarding the duties of passengers with respect to making their declarations.

This will be done to protect the passengers from mistakes which may lead to the imposition of penalties for failure to live up to the law regarding dutiable effects. Mr. Stackable brought with him from Washington circulars which are to be presented to passengers bearing on this subject. The circular reads as follows:

It will be necessary for you to make a declaration before the United States Customs Officer in the saloon of this vessel, stating the number of your trunks and other packages and their contents; and residents of the United States, returning from abroad, should provide a detailed list of articles purchased abroad and the prices paid therefor.

A failure to declare all dutiable goods in your possession will render the same liable to seizure and confiscation, and yourself to fine and imprisonment.

Section 26 of the Customs Administrative Act of June 10, 1890, provides a fine of not exceeding $2,000, or imprisonment of not more than a year, or both, in the discretion of the court, for giving or offering to give a gratuity to an officer of the customs in consideration of any illegal act in connection with the examination of baggage, or for attempting by threats or demands to improperly influence or control any such officer.

Passengers will facilitate the work of Customs Officers and contribute to their own comfort and speedy departure from the wharf, by noting on the back of a copy of this circular, which may be obtained from the officers of the vessel, their purchases abroad, with prices paid therefor.

By order of the Secretary of the Treasury.

R. C. A. Peterson returned yesterday in the Korea from a trip which included Texas, Mexico and the large Eastern cities. At St. Louis he found considerable interest manifested over the proposed exhibits of the outlying portions of the United States, and the hope was expressed that Hawaii will make a creditable showing.

OLD TIMER PASSES OFF

George W. C. Jones Ends Long and Busy Career.

G. W. C. Jones died at his home, Robello lane, Palama, at nine o'clock yesterday morning. The body will be removed from the house at 1:30 this afternoon and borne to the Masonic Temple, from whence the funeral will take place at three o'clock. Mr. Jones who was 72 years of age, had been gradually failing for three or four years past. For several months before his death he languished in bed, affectionately nursed by his children. Though suffering greatly for lack of sleep, he rebelled at taking sedatives prescribed by his physician.

George W. C. Jones was born in New York City on October 19, 1831. He attended Tracy & Drew's academy, at Henry and Market streets, where Joseph and John Harper, who became the famous Harper Brothers, publishers, were among his classmates. He left home on February 7, 1849, in the bark Ann Welch, being one of fifty who put in $500 each and bought the vessel. On arriving at Sacramento, having tarried in Valparaiso three weeks to recruit, they tied up the vessel.

Mr. Jones went to the Salmon Falls gold mines, Eldorado county, where he had a store and ranch. After starting there some time he sold everything out and went to China in the Ann Welch, taking the first California gold dust to Hongkong, where he remained but four months when he returned in the same vessel to San Francisco. The Ann Welch was sold there and when last heard of was in use as a store ship at Shanghai.

After working as a clerk for Thomas H. Selby & Co., San Francisco, for some time Mr. Jones came to the Hawaiian Islands in the bark Yankee in 1855. After a while he became captain of police under the late Marshal W. C. Parke. In 1861 he was deputy jailer under Mike Brown, serving as such for a year and a half. While in that position Mr. Jones planted the kamani tree that lives in the prison yard today.

Mr. Jones married Harriet Needles Gilman in February, 1862, when he was purser of the old steamer Kilauea. Eighteen months later he went into the pulp industry at Keauhou, Kau, Hawaii, in partnership with J. C. King and L. Kina, afterward buying them out. He was there eight years.

In 1866 Mr. Jones, with Charles and Jules Richardson, built the first volcano house of pill and sandal wood. This is the cottage now used as a billiard room at the new hotel. Mr. Jones, Reid Richardson and Kaina on September 4, 1871, bought the ahupua'a of Kahuku, Mr. Jones afterward buying the interests of his partners and conducting the place in the name of G. W. C. Jones & Co. This is the Kahuku ranch property, as sold with other pieces of land in 1888 to the present owner, Col. Sam. Norris.

Mr. Jones, on disposing of the ranch, moved to Honolulu with his family, and in 1889 was made sanitary inspector of Honolulu, holding the position until the overthrow of the monarchy. He was next meat inspector for the Metropolitan Meat Co., until he retired from work four years ago. Since then he has been at home with his son John and three daughters. Mrs. Jones died a few years ago amidst universal respect.

Twelve children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Jones—six boys and six girls, all of whom are living. They are as follows: Edward M. Jones, Dayton C. Jones, Mrs. James I. Dowsett, Jr. (now in California with her two daughters), Arthur K. and John H. (in the McInerney shoe store), Geo. W. C. and Charles A. (in California), Mrs. Capt. C. Pederson, Mrs. Charles Dudoit and Miss Jennie Jones (living at the Jones home), Mrs. James C. Carter (in Hilo), and Miss Pillani Jones (in McNutt's hospital, San Francisco). Mr. Jones leaves fourteen grandchildren. Mrs. Harriet Everett, St. Augustine, Florida, is a sister who survives him.

George W. C. Jones was a man of kindly instincts in all the relations of life. His sound early education made him an acquisition to the business and social life of the Islands among the Forty-niners who came here. When the great lava flow of 1887 crossed his premises at Kahuku, Mr. Jones put on record intelligent data of the eruption and attendant earthquakes, sending some of them promptly to the Honolulu press. He brought to Hawaii a splendid physical constitution. Although two years past three score and ten, his last birthday was the first he ever spent in bed.

C. E. FOUNDER IS COMING

Dr. Francis E. Clark, founder of the first Christian Endeavor society and president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, will arrive in Honolulu by the steamer Sierra Jan. 6, 1904, on his way to Australia, and a Christian Endeavor rally is to be held by Hawaiian Endeavorers while his steamer is in port, in his honor, and to give all interested an opportunity to hear and meet him. No details have yet been arranged. Mr. Moses K. Nakuna, president of the Hawaiian C. E. Union, is about to call a meeting of the pastors and Christian Endeavor officers of Oahu to plan the rally.

KOREA HEAVY LADEN FOR ORIENT

About 8 o'clock yesterday morning the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's big liner Korea docked at the Bishop wharf, and her heavy list of passengers came ashore to enjoy the sights. The vessel brought 266 tons of cargo for Honolulu, her entire cargo consisting of 6800 tons, including 1500 barrels of flour, 300 tons of lead, 1000 barrels of beer, 1000 tons of salt, and 3000 bales of cotton for the Orient.

The vessel departed for Yokohama yesterday promptly at 5 p. m. Seldom has a steamer swung away from the wharf so promptly on the hour scheduled, for the 5 o'clock whistle had hardly died away before the Korea was backing out into the stream assisted by the tug Fearless. The Territorial band was present, and as a special compliment to Mme. Takahira, wife of the Japanese Minister at Washington, played the Japanese National air.

There were a large number of passengers for Honolulu. Among them were Mrs. George R. Carter, wife of Governor Carter; Mrs. Terry, wife of Admiral Terry, U. S. N.; Miss Terry and Mr. Terry, come to join the Admiral; Collector of the Port E. R. Stackable, Collector of Internal Revenue Roy Chamberlain, accompanied by Mrs. Chamberlain and two children; Major-General MacArthur, commanding the Department of California, accompanied by Mrs. MacArthur and his aide, Captain Parker West.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Requa of Oakland, Cal., will spend some time in this city. Mr. Requa is a banker of San Francisco and Oakland. Mme. Takahira is returning to Japan for a visit; Lieut. Commander York Noel, U. S. N., accompanied by Mrs. Noel, goes to the Asiatic Station; Hon. Dean C. Worcester of the Philippine Commission, is returning to the Philippines from a four months' visit to his birthplace at Thebes, N. E. He is accompanied by Mrs. Worcester, and the Misses Worcester. H. K. Hemans, a banker of Hongkong, goes to his home, Captain A. G. Knights, prominently connected with shipping interests in China for the past two decades, and now superintendent of the China Merchants' Steamship Co., is returning to Shanghai; Z. Zekebu, an attaché of the Japanese Legation at Washington, is returning to Japan.

A New Back for an Old One
How It is Done in Honolulu.

Sometimes the back aches with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; sometimes pain shoots across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use plastering or rubbing the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. To exchange a bad back for a new and stronger one, follow the example of this Honolulu citizen:

Mr. A. J. Cahill, of Fort street, this city, night watchman in the employ of Messrs. T. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., says: "Whilst a young man I was a sailor and at one time worked for the Inter Island service. I was, however, obliged to give up sea life on account of severe suffering from my back and kidneys. For this I had tried various remedies, but the one which restored me to health was Doan's Backache Kidney Pills—procured at Hollister's Drug Store. They relieved me completely after years of suffering. If any one desires further particulars he may apply to me. I am to be found at Van Dorn's Ship Chandlery, Fort street."

You should get the same medicine which helped Mr. Cahill. See that the full name DOAN'S BACKACHE KIDNEY PILLS is on the wrapper and refuse any imitation. Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
